

Geranium

Intercultural Operations

Weed Control :

The growth of the crop is slow during initial period therefore the crop may require one weeding after about 45 days from planting and one hoeing after each harvest.

Intercropping :

Blackgram can be taken up as an intercrop with geranium during the first year in the initial stages of the crop. One row of blackgram is sown between two rows of geranium, subsequent to transplanting of geranium.