

Geranium

Irrigation

The plants establish well if irrigation is given once a day for the first 3-4 days and subsequently on alternate days for 10- 15 days. After this period, irrigation is continued twice a week and the schedule is suitably modified during the winter and monsoon months.