

Vetiver

Intercultural Operations

The growth of vetiver is slow during initial period of 90 days. The first weeding is recommended at 30 days after sprouting. The second and third weeding is given respectively in the months of February and July.