

Vetiver

Diseases

Leaf Blight (Curvularia Trifolii):

The infected leaves bear dark spots, which turn black with age. The roots of affected plants become yellow and gradually dry out.

Control: Two to three sprays of copper fungicide (0.3%) containing 50 % Metallic copper is recommended as a control measure