

Lavender

Intercultural Operations

The field of lavender is kept weed-free by regular weeding and hoeing. Regular hoeing keeps the soil loose which is responsible for proper plant development.

During the first and the second year 5-6 cultivations at 8-10 cm depth are required. Subsequently every year lavender plantations should be machine cultivated 3-4 times. Similarly one digging before blossoming in the spring is recommended.