

Jasmine

Post Harvest Technology

Grading

The flower buds are generally graded according to their shape, size and freshness before packing in boxes or baskets for marketing.

Packaging

The best packaging material used are corrugated cardboard boxes which are ideal for distant markets while bamboo baskets covered with wet gunny bags are used for local markets.