

Chrysanthemum

Irrigation

Chrysanthemum requires frequent and thorough irrigation. If rains are delayed irrigation is given twice a week in the first month and subsequently at weekly intervals.

Plant Growth Regulators :

Crop growth regulation and flowering can be modified or controlled by use of growth regulators. Flower quality and yield can be improved by the use of regulators. Spraying GA₃ (50ppm) at 30, 45 and 60 days after planting increases the flower yield.