

Beet

Intercultural Operations

Weed Control :

Weeding is usually done manually. Deep cultivation may be avoided as it may damage the crop. Earthing up is done to support the structure of the plant and to prevent the exposure of roots to sunlight.

Thinning :

Thinning is necessary to have roots of uniform shape and size. Hand thinning is done soon after the germination to provide optimum space for uniform development of the root.